

In Geography we will:

- Labelling the main features of a mountain e.g. base, plateau, face, mountain range, tree line.
- Identifying the key mountains in UK and Europe
- Looking in greater depth at the Alps in Germany
- Learning how mountains are formed and relate to work on rocks in science

In Art we will be:

- Exploring mark making to add details to our drawings and paintings.
- Exploring brush strokes to create textures and patterns
- Use different media – pastels for drawing

In Science we will be:

- Looking at and creating food chains
- Understanding the need for a balanced diet
- Finding foods for each type of food group
- Name some of the major bones in our skeleton, compare skeletons of different animals.
- Naming, describing and classifying rocks
- Learning how fossils are formed

In DT we will be:

- Making prehistoric shelters
- Exploring different ways to join fabric using sewing skills
- Exploring different ways to decorate fabric using sewing skills

This term in Owl's class we will be..In RE we will be:

- Learning about some of the ways Hindus celebrate Divali and thinking about how a Hindu child may feel.
- Thinking about what Christmas means to them and what Christmas means to Christians

In Maths we will be:

- Working on numbers to 1000- representing, ordering and comparing them.
- Adding and subtracting 2 and 3 digit numbers, introducing column method of calculations.
- Multiplying and dividing by 2, 5, 10, 3, 4, 8
- Learning our tables facts, improving our fluency

In History we will be:

- Looking at the changes in Britain from the Stone Age to the Iron Age
- Learning about life as a nomadic and as a settler.
- Looking at how the development of tools and farming changed the life of people.

In English we will be:

- Reading a variety of texts including; myths, poetry, picture books, novels and information texts.
- Writing in a variety of forms including; formal and informal letters, poetry, instructions, story writing and information texts.
- Learning how to use a greater range of punctuation marks.
- Learning common spelling patterns.
- Developing a neat even, joined handwriting style.

In MFL we will be:

- Learning key words and phrases in German, including greetings, feelings and colours.
- Writing short phrases and simple sentences.
- Learning about German traditions through songs, games.
- Learning about the location of Germany and identifying some key features.

In Music we will be:

- Listening and appreciating a range of music from different traditions and composers
- Playing and performing in solo and group contexts using voices and musical instruments.

In Computing we will be:

- Learning how to stay safe when using the internet
- Learning how to open and respond to emails and how to attach files.

In PE we will be:

- Developing throwing and catching skills and use them in small sided games
- Working on ball on the ground skills with increasing control and accuracy
- Linking balance and travel actions in gymnastics
- Working on dynamics, rhythm and expression in dance